Let's Start!

Food ... the spice of life!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- What foods do you think are spicy?
- How often do you eat spicy foods?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about food and customs.
- I can ask for and give simple instructions.
- I can ask and give information about daily routines.

Let's Explore!

Vanessa talks with Aunt Nelly about her daily routines and food.

* When you talk about "daily routines", you use the Present Simple tense.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Aunt Nelly: Tell me more about your daily routines, Vanessa. When do you normally have your meals?

Vanessa: I have breakfast as soon as I get up, around 7:15. I have lunch when I have a break between classes at 12:30.

Aunt Nelly: What time do you have dinner?

Vanessa: I have dinner around 7:00.

Aunt Nelly: That's about the same time as me. We can eat together, if you want. Can you tell me how to make spaghetti sauce?

Vanessa: Sure. It's easy. Just chop some onions and fry them with garlic. Then add tomatoes, water and spices.

Aunt Nelly: What spices do you use?

Vanessa: Oregano, salt and pepper. It's great with grated Parmesan cheese on top.

Let's Practice!

Vanessa talks about her daily routines.

Instructions: Practice reading the sentences aloud.

1. I wake up at 7:15.
2. I have breakfast as soon as I get up, around 7:15.

Learning Points

Cooking Instructions

You see cooking instructions in recipes or when someone explains how to cook something. Cooking instructions use verbs in the Imperative form. The Imperative is the verb in the base form. You do not use a subject.

Verb	Meaning	Image
chop	to cut something into small pieces
fry	to cook in a pan over the stove with oil
grill	to cook using a barbecue
bake	to cook in the oven
boil	to heat a liquid until it becomes gas

Learning Points

add	to put more of something measure	to determine the quantity of something
pour	to move a liquid from one container to another

Examples:

- Chop some onions.
- Fry them with garlic.
- Then, add tomatoes, water and spices.
