Let's Explore!

It's the Gourmet Chef's radio show! Listen to what he has to say.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Good morning and welcome to The Gourmet Chef. This morning, our show is going to focus on how to make a variety of delicious soups. Let's begin with a simple vegetarian soup stock.

I think the secret of really great soup is in the choice of many fresh ingredients. To begin, take a few white onions, some celery stalks, and a couple of carrots. Chop them into 1-2 inch-sized pieces.

Next, heat a teaspoon of olive oil in a large pot. Add most of the chopped vegetables with a teaspoon of pepper and salt. Then, add 6-8 cups of water and a lot of bay leaves to add flavor. Bring to a boil and then reduce the heat to low.

Here we have the final product to taste and enjoy. Wonderful!

Learning Points

Talking About Quantities

You use quantifiers to talk about the quantity or amount of something. Some quantifiers, like some, can be used with both count and non-count nouns. You use any in negative statements and in questions for both count and non-count nouns. Many is only used with count nouns. Much and a little are only used with non-count nouns.
