

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Hmmm, good food! What country does it come from?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- What is one of your favorite meals?
- How do you make this meal?
- On what occasion do you make this meal?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about food and customs.
- I can ask for and give simple instructions.
- I can express a goal or a purpose.

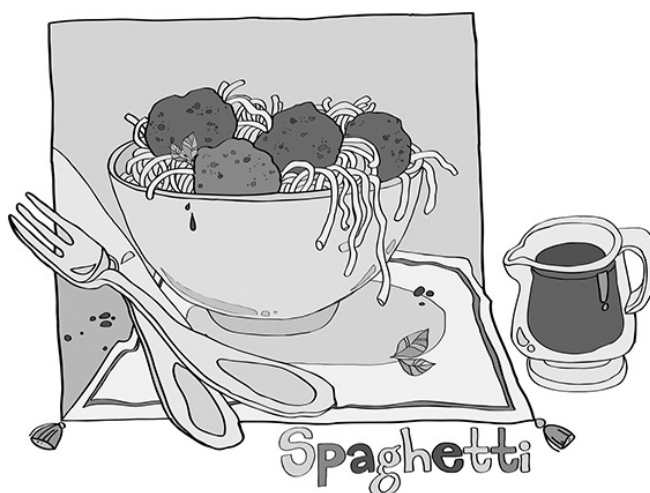

Let's Explore!

Vanessa explains how to prepare spaghetti ... al dente*! Don't cook* it too much!

* "Al dente" is an Italian phrase you can use in English. It means pasta that is cooked just right.

 You use "don't" before an Imperative verb to tell someone what not to do.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Aunt Nelly: How was school today, Vanessa?

Vanessa: It was great. We learned about Italian foods. Did you know that tiramisu comes from Italy?

Aunt Nelly: Yum! Can you tell me how to make spaghetti?

Vanessa: Yes, it's very easy. Just fill a large pot with water and add some salt to make the water boil faster. Put the pot on the stove. When the water boils, put in the spaghetti and let it cook until it's soft. Don't cook it too much. It should be al dente. This means not too hard, not too soft. Then drain the water. And that's it!

Aunt Nelly: How do you make the sauce?

Vanessa: The sauce? That's a bit harder. I'm going to make spaghetti sauce tonight to try a new recipe.

Let's Practice!

Vanessa explains how to make spaghetti. What are the steps?

Instructions: Draw a line from the first part of the statement on the left to the second part on the right.

- | | |
|-------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1. Fill a large pot | A. too much. |
| 2. Add some salt | B. put in the spaghetti. |
| 3. Put the pot | C. on the stove. |
| 4. When the water boils | D. to make the water boil faster. |
| 5. Don't cook it | E. with water. |

Let's Practice!

Vanessa explains her actions. What does she say?

Instructions: Use the words from the word bank to correctly complete the sentences.

Word bank

to fill make try fill to make to prepare to try

1. Just _____ a large pot with water and add some salt _____ the water boil faster.
2. I'm going _____ a spaghetti sauce tonight _____ a new recipe.

Extension Activity

Let's plan an international meal!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Decide on your favorite local dish.
- Choose a dessert for this meal.
- Go on the Internet and find out where each meal comes from.
- Write a short paragraph explaining how to make each one.
- Present your main course and dessert to the class.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I read about international foods.

☐ ☐

I write sentences about food.

☐ ☐

I give cooking instructions.

☐ ☐

I present a main course and a dessert.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- spaghetti (noun): a form of pasta shaped like a long string
e.g. Did you learn the real way to make spaghetti?
- to boil (verb): to heat a liquid until it changes to gas
e.g. When the water boils, put in the spaghetti.
- to drain (verb): to remove water
e.g. After you cook the spaghetti, you drain the water.
- to mean (verb): to have meaning; to represent an idea
e.g. Al dente means the spaghetti is not too hard, not too soft.
- to fill (verb): to add more of a substance until you can't add anymore
e.g. Fill this pot with water and add some salt.
- pot (noun): A container for cooking liquids and sauces
e.g. Fill a pot with water.
- stove (noun): a large appliance used for cooking and baking e.g. Put the pot on the stove.
- sauce (noun): a thick liquid you put on top of some dishes
e.g. I have a good recipe for spaghetti sauce.

Learning Points

Infinitives of Purpose

Infinitives are the structure to + verb, like to go or to see.

Infinitives of purpose are infinitives you place in phrases at the end of a sentence. They explain why the action happens.

Examples:

- Just add some salt to make the water boil faster.
- I'm going to cook spaghetti tonight to try a new recipe.
- Let's make pizza to do something different.

Asking for and Giving Simple Instructions

When you ask for cooking instructions, you use modals or Wh- questions.
When you give cooking instructions, you use the Imperative.

Asking for Instructions	Giving Instructions
Can you tell me ...	Fill ...
Could you explain ...	Put ...
How do you ...	Don't cook ...

Examples:

- Anne: Can you tell me how to make spaghetti?
- Simon: First, fill a large pot with boiling water.
- Anne: How do you make pasta sauce?
- Simon: To start, put some tomato paste into a small pot and add water.

